Making the Blind See.
A dispat from Anderson, Indiana, says:
The meetings of Mrs. Woodworth, the trance evangelist, still continue at the Church of God, in this city. The excitement has reached fever heat. Some alleged miraculous cures are said to have been effected under her ministrations. One of the most remarkable cures is that of Mollie Bowers, who lives near Alexandria, Ind.

Twelve years ago, when quite young, she was attacked with measles, and the disease left her blind in one eye and the sight of the other much impaired. She has been treated by various eye specialists, but without success. Yesterday she and her father, a farmer, drove to Anderson to attend the meeting. Mrs. Bowers went to the altar, and, kneeling, Mrs. Woodworth of her blind, implored her to join with her in prayer to have her eyesight restored.

A pathetic scene ensued. The young lady, clinging upon the rostrum, pleaded that her eyesight be restored. Mrs. Woodworth laid her hands across the young lady's eyes, quoting a passage of Scripture, and commanded her to rise. She did so and saw. For a few moments she stood bewildered, and finally, realizing that her eyesight had been restored, she turned to her father and fell upon his neck, sobbing bitterly. Then she began to shout and praise God for the wonderful cure He had made.

Several tests were made to see whether the cure was complete, such as distinguishing colors, reading fine print, and so on, all of which were successful and showed conclusively that the cure was real.

Two reputable citizens declare that Mrs. Woodworth has cured them of chronic deafness. Wm. Span, of Fortville, was made to walk, something he has not done for years, by reason of a leg crushed in an accident several years ago.

LARGEST HOUSE IN THE WORLD—Every European, American and Oriental country has its scores of public and private mansions; but Austria has the giant of them all. The Freibaue (free house), situated in Wieden, a suburb of Vienna, is the most spacious building on the globe. Within its walls a whole town of human beings live, work and sleep. It contains in all between 1,200 and 1,500 rooms, divided into upwards of 400 dwelling apartments of from four to six rooms each. This immense house has thirteen courtyards—five open and eight covered—and a large garden within its walls. A visitor to the building relates that he once spent two hours in looking for a man known to reside in the house. Scarcely a trade, handicraft or profession can be named which is not represented in this enormous building. Gold and silver workers, makers of fancy articles, lodgings, house keepers, bookbinders, agents, turners, batters, officers, locksmiths, jewelers, tutors, scientific men, government clerks, three bakers, eighteen tailors, twenty-nine shoemakers, and many other tradesmen live in it. The house has thirty-one staircases, and fronts on three streets and one square. In one day the postman's delivery has amounted to as many as 1,000 pieces to this single but gigantic house. To address a letter to the house, and to the person it is intended for, does not assure the sender that the person to whom it is addressed will ever receive it. In order to "make assurance doubly sure," all letters addressed to the "Freibaue" must be provided with both the Christian and the surname of the person, the number of the court, staircase, and apartment, otherwise it is apt to go astray as though unprovided with directions as to street and number. At the present time 212 persons live in this immense building, and pay an annual rent of over 100,000 florins.—Hebrew Journal.

THE POTENT REVOLVER—About eleven o'clock on Saturday night, just after the departure from Joplin, Mo., of the Gulf train for Kansas City, two men, having their faces muffled to their eyes with black handkerchiefs, opened the door of the ticket office at the Gulf depot, and, presenting two pistols each, ordered M. J. Conley, the night clerk, to throw up his hands. Conley was alone in the station and obeyed the order. He was next told to open the safe and money drawer, which he did. Conley was then told to throw up his hands and turn his face to the wall. He obeyed. One of the men kept him covered while the other robbed the till and the safe, securing about $150. They also took $4 from Conley. Just as the men were leaving the office George Lewis, one of the assistants, opened the door. He was ordered to come forward, and was marched into the corner, and told to face the wall. The thieves got away without molestation.

CRYSTALIZED LENSES.
LEXINGTON, VA., Jan. 17, 1890.
Mr. A. C. Hawks:
Dear Sir—When I require the use of glasses I wear your Patented Crystalized Lenses. In respect to brilliancy and clearness of vision they are superior to any glass I have ever used.
Respectfully,
FITZGUTH LEE,
Ex Governor of Virginia.

MEDICINAL.

A Doctor

Bill saved by always keeping Simmons Liver Regulator in the house.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night; if you lead a sedentary life or are weakened by the strain of your duties; if you need a cathartic to relax the bowels; if you require action on the Liver to relieve indigestion; if you require something to purify the blood and regulate the system; if you are traveling in unhealthy localities, or food or water does not agree with you, a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator will remove all trouble.

Dr. Governor of Va., and U.S. Senator Joseph E. Brown says:
"You are at liberty to use my name in praise of Simmons Liver Regulator, and recommend it to everyone as the best purgative of the bowels and blood. It is superior to Quinine if taken in time."

A CARD—We are aware that a number of Alexandrians go to Washington for their CHINA and GLASSWARE, and we believe that with the proper advice an attention to all or nearly all of these people can be induced to buy goods in these lines at home. We intend therefore to do all in our power to further this end, and for this purpose we have selected our stock for fall with more than usual care and foresight. Our retail department, besides, we put under the special care of our salesman, and it will be his duty to see that the stock is always full, and to attend to the wants of our Alexandrian customers. We only keep "firsts" (goods selected by the manufacturer as perfect), and we buy only from the manufacturer. For this reason, we can sell you not only the best goods, but at the very lowest prices. In fine French china, we will order any of Haviland's patterns at a very reasonable price. Hoping that our efforts may be rewarded, and thanking you for past kindness, we are very truly yours, sep27 E. J. MILLER & SON.
